*74. SHRI RAJNATH SINGH:
SHRIMATI MALTI SHARMA:

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the deliberations of a symposium held in Delhi on October 12, 1996, regarding relationship between judiciary, executive and legislature;

(b) whether Government propose to discuss the matter of judicial activism with Chief Justice of Supreme Court to ensure that judiciary does not encroach upon other wings functions; if so, when; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI RAMAKANT D. KHALAP): (a) The Government is aware of the symposium held in Delhi on October 12, 1996, which was organised by the Lok Sabha Secretariat and presided over by the Hon'ble Speaker of the Lok Sabha. The proceedings of the symposium are available in the Parliament library for reference.

(b) and (c) No, Sir. The Constitution of India clearly defines the functions of Judiciary, Executive and Legislature.

Discussion between the Prime Minister of India and the President of World Bank

*75. PROF. RAM KAPSE: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Prime Minister of India had discussions with the President, World Bank on 19th October, 1996;

(b) if so, the details of the issues discussed; and

(c) the details of the decisions taken on the issues discussed?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Discussions with the World Bank President focussed on how to improve disbursements in respect of ongoing projects in the country, the future pipeline of the World Bank assistance, and on the present economic situation in the country. The Prime Minister mentioned that housing, Drinking Water, Rural Roads, Primary Health and Education, Infrastructure, among others, are some of the important programmes of the Government. On the mechanism for monitoring projects, it was agreed that a senior officer would be appointed as single point Project Monitoring Authority in all States and Central Ministries having large exposure to World Bank lending for intensive supervision of these projects. The World Bank agreed to continue its support in respect of investments in infrastructure, fiscal adjustment, poverty alleviation, social, agriculture sectors and for private sector development.

Losses suffered by Air India

*76. SHRIMATI JAYAPRADA NAHATA:
DR. MOHAN BABU:

Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) the losses suffered by Air India during the current financial year till September, 1996;

(b) the main reasons for its losses; and

(c) the long term perspective plan proposed to improve the quality of its services and motivate its personnel to make Air India a profit making organisation?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM): (a) and (b) The estimated loss of Air India for the period April to September, 1996 is Rs. 195 crores. The losses are owing to increase in expenditure on account of interest and depreciation on new aircraft, reduction in yield due to increased comptition, increased landing, handly and navigational charges, agitation of engineers etc.

(c) To improve its financial performance, Air India is taking steps to intensify its marketing efforts, augment capacity, reduce non-operating costs and to improve its product, image and on time performance.
